

GONE TO TEXAS: Women & Quilts

March 2 - September 23, 2012

Wednesday - Sunday

Noon - 5:00pm

The Joseph and Susanna Dickinson Hannig Museum presents an exhibit of 19th century quilts and the women who made them. The exhibit will feature ten quilts at a time, and explore their origins through the context of immigration into Texas.

A special opening ceremony will be held on Friday, March 2nd, from 6-8 pm. Celebrate Texas Independence Day by seeing the historic quilts and discussing them with our guest curator, Marcia Kaylakie.

The Joseph & Susanna Dickinson Hannig Museum
411 East Fifth Street
Austin, TX 78701
(512) 974 - 3830

www.susannadickinsonmuseum.org

Guest Curator Marcia Kaylakie, International Society of Appraisers, Certified Quilt Appraiser, American Quilter's Society, member Professional Association of Appraisers - Quilted Textiles, and author of Texas Quilts and Quilters: A Lone Star Legacy.